

Fun with Databases

1. Have Powerpoint playing as teachers enter
2. Introduce self and give contact information
 - a. Janet Flusche
 - b. Jaclyn Paschel
3. Overview of what we will cover
 - a. Explain how we created a game assessment for Access
 - b. Let audience go through a test question
 - c. Give disk of ALL information to audience
4. Why we had the need for creating the game
 - a. Since about 1999
 - b. Access not the students favorite software
 - c. Students have a hard time “getting it”
 - d. Wanted students to have some fun
5. Have audience go through a question
 - a. Audience will go through a question helping with the clues, finding folder answers, and finding the answer
6. Explain how text was created
 - a. Create DB form in Access
 - b. Have student fill out form in Access
 - c. Combine all teacher’s DB forms in Access
 - d. Have teacher give input on their individual questions
 - e. Create questions for test in Access
 - f. Create folders for hallways and teachers in PowerPoint
 - g. Create a document to give all teachers with the answers to the inside folders in Word
 - h. Create answer sheet in Word
 - i. Create grading rubrics in Word
 - j. Explain Master Query Teacher extra credit fun
 - k. Create intro Powerpoint
7. Give audience disk with all information on it